A SPOTLIGHT ON THE MONTH'S TOP MOMENTS

TRANSFORMING FUTURE:

How our AFTER SCHOOL PROGRAM (ASP) is empowering education for children across our projects – International Literacy Day - special edition.

Empowered by Education: A Sister's Dream

Zainab is 13 and in the 8th grade, while her little sister Ayesha is 9 and in the 4th grade. Together, they are two bright, ambitious girls whose dreams are taking flight, all thanks to Oasis India's After School Program (ASP).

"Like many kids, we were on the edge of giving up on school," Zainab shares. "If it weren't for the help we received from Oasis India, especially the ASP program, I don't think we could have continued our education."

Their passion for learning shines through as they talk about their future. "We want to study science and become teachers so we can help girls in our community finish school just like we are. We want to be role models for them."

Zainab and Ayesha live in a community where many parents worry about their children's futures. Poverty often makes it hard for families to prioritize education, and many girls drop out after primary school. Their parents work as cooks in a nearby catering outlet, struggling to make ends meet.

But with the support of Oasis India, Zainab and Ayesha have found a safe space where they can learn and grow. The After School Program not only provides them with academic help but also builds their confidence and encourages them to dream big.

Through programs like ASP, Oasis India is making a real difference in children's education across various projects in India. Many kids who once thought they had to drop out are now thriving, filled with hope and determination for a brighter future.

Zainab and Ayesha are shining examples of how, with the right support, anything is possible. They remind us that education is a powerful tool that can change lives and lift families out of poverty. Together, let's help more children like them reach their dreams!

FROM SHY TO SHINE: A BOY'S BOLD JOURNEY OF COURAGE AND HOPE

Sonjamang, a bright 9-year-old boy from Teiseng Village, faced challenges that no child should have to. Born with a physical disability, he struggled to find a school that could support his needs. In 2019, he joined a special day school in Pearsonmun that caters to children with physical and mental challenges. However, because Sonjamang's challenges were only physical, he found the program overwhelming and left after just two weeks. For years, he didn't attend school, missing out on the joy of learning and growing with friends.

Everything changed in June 2022, when Sonjamang joined our After School Program (ASP). At first, he was shy, hesitant, and even fearful of attending classes. The thought of going back to school, after being teased by peers in the past, was too much for him. But our tutors didn't give up—they visited his home, encouraged him gently, and showed him that he belonged.

Slowly but surely, Sonjamang began to bloom. He started coming to classes regularly, enjoying the company of friends, and building the confidence he once lacked. For the first time in years, he began to read and write, and his parents saw something they hadn't seen in a long time—a spark of hope in their son's eyes.

After a year with ASP, Sonjamang's progress was undeniable. He could read and write far better than before, and his parents, along with school authorities, felt he was ready for a new chapter. This year, Sonjamang was admitted to Seilal JB School in Standard B. Now, he attends both regular school and ASP every day, filled with happiness and pride as he continues to grow academically and personally.

Sonjamang's story is a beautiful reminder of Oasis India's vision—to create communities where everyone is included, can contribute, and reach their full potential.

His journey shows us that with the right support, every child, regardless of their challenges, can rise above and thrive.

ORGANIC FARMING IS CHANGING LIVES IN MANIPUR

85 enthusiastic farmers from Songpi, Tuinom, and Teiseng villages joined our insightful Training on Organic Farming last month.

The One Day Training focused on introducing beneficiaries to sustainable farming practices, such as crop rotation, which helps maintain soil health and boost yields naturally.

Farmers discovered the benefits of rotating crops like potatoes, root vegetables, squash, fava beans, and peas, and the value of planting compatible crops together.

Their enthusiasm is a testament to the positive impact these practices can have on sustainable economic stability, and eventually preventing exploitation and potential human trafficking. Together, we're "Making India better for communities, especially women and children"!

GRADUATION

Computer Course - Nalasopara

Last month witnessed 49 amazing students successfully graduating from our computer program, and what a journey it has been! These students had no prior experience with computers and couldn't afford private training, but now they've mastered essential skills.

At Oasis India, we go beyond technical learning. Our program also focuses on life skills, confidence building, self-esteem, goal setting, and adolescent growth issues. Some students who had dropped out of college are now re-enrolled, ready to continue their education!

The graduation was filled with joy and gratitude as the students shared heartfelt thanks to Oasis India and the dedicated trainers who made their success possible.

Together, we're making a difference – one student at a time.
